RSAT topics and criteria covering major sustainability issues of hydropower

- Institutional Capacity
- Options Assessment, siting and design
- Economic contribution of hydropower
- Equitable sharing of hydropower costs and benefits
- Social issues and stakeholder consultation
- Flow and reservoir management
- Management of fisheries resources and community safety
- Erosion, sediment transport, and geomorphological impacts
- Energy/power sector planning and regulation
- Regulatory and governance
- Hydropower Projects
- River Basin Planning and Management

RSAT is a joint initiative by MRC, ADB, WWF, and supported by German Cooperation through GIZ.